

You'll love Israel
from the first
"Shalom."

On the beach near the ancient city of Jaffa.

Here's a sunny "Shalom" from Israel's first family of surfing. Amour Kanzapolski, shown here with two of his children on the beach at Tel Aviv near the ancient city of Jaffa, is the son of Shamai "Topsi" Kanzapolski who brought surfing to Israel in the 60s. Amour is a professional surfing instructor, and part of his family's surfboard industry in Tel Aviv. His goal: to make sure the beaches of Israel are always clean and beautiful, the water always free of pollution, and that you're always welcome to swim, surf, sail and have a glorious time on the beaches of Israel.

ISRAEL
NO ONE BELONGS HERE MORE THAN YOU.
